LOS CÁRTELES

A crime scene at night. A dark-colored van is parked on a street, its front end heavily damaged and crumpled. A forensic investigator in a white protective suit and blue gloves stands to the right of the van, holding a bright flashlight that illuminates the scene. The background is dark, with some foliage visible on the left. The overall atmosphere is somber and investigative.

NO ES SOLO MÉXICO

A photograph showing two individuals in a cluttered, makeshift living space, likely a homeless shelter. The person on the left is wearing a black hoodie and has a large, intricate tattoo on their right forearm. The person on the right is wearing a grey hoodie and dark pants. They are surrounded by various items of clothing, plastic bags, and other debris scattered on the floor. The scene is dimly lit, emphasizing the stark and crowded environment.
